LEERY OF MR. LAWSON

A Raid on the Market Was Expected Yesterday.

New York, Dec. 31.—There was a rather marked revival of apprehension of a successful attack upon the stock market values today, caused by the renewed proclamation of dire things to happen next week by the same authority that upset the recent market.

A MOVING BOG.

Great Devastation Going on in County Roscommon.

New York, Dec. 31.—A Herald dispatch from London says a moving bog in County Roscommon, Ireland, is creating immense devastation. The bog known as Cloonsheever is three miles from Castlereagh. When it began to slide it moved three-quarters of a mile in a few days, covering everything with peat or water eight or ten feet. Peasants are surrounded on all sides by a mile of bog and water. The inhabitants of Cloonsheever, a village in a valley, with 750 one-story houses, barely escaped with their lives, the bog moving unawares upon them. Many peasants' houses have entirely disappeared and of the others only the chimney tops are showing. Tree tops mark the spot where well tilled farms have disappeared. At one point a lake of ten or twelve acres is formed from pent up mountain streams and threatens disaster.

Prices on Underwear

A belated case of comforts strolled in the other day—an echo of the almost forgotten washouts of last fall. They should have been here in September but like many other pieces of freight—they didn't come.

The manufacturers have allowed us a rebate of 50c on each comfort—therefore you can save just that much if you come while this lot is here.

All are full size, good weight, stuffed with clean white cotton and covered with an excellent quality of silkoline. Regularly $2.25.

TUESDAY'S PRICE, $1.75.

Store
Closed all Day
Monday

Our after-Christmas stock cleaning brought to light hundreds of garments in children's and ladies' underwear that are soiled and rumpled from frequent showing.

Of course you'd naturally wash new underwear anyway before using so these garments are therefore as good as ever but they need a "tubbing."
